

After many years of wanting to jam together, Fareed Haque and Frank Vignola finally got together for their first tour together in December of the year 2006. Ending at the famed Blue Note Jazz Club in downtown New York City, the pair accompanied by Gary Mazzaroppi on bass, Vinny Raniolo and Rich Zukor on percussion performed to a sold out audience and recorded this brilliant CD all in the same day. This recording is sure to become a classic super guitar recording as it full of spell binding, refreshing guitar riffs enriched with fat grooves.
